Brothers and Sisters in Christ

It is August and though we are 6 months from our January annual meeting, I wanted to plant a seed in your minds. My time as Chairman of the congregation will be over (I'm in the second year of my second term) this January. Now would be a good time to look around for candidates to be your next Chairman. According to our bylaws, this opportunity to serve the congregation is limited to men. So men, prayerfully consider this opportunity to serve.

Meet Another New Member

Steven Hirsch, or Steve as most people call him, was brought into membership by adult instruction at this year's Easter Vigil.

Steve has been married for nine years to Sherry, a longtime member of Peace Lutheran, and they live in Centralia. Together they share a wonderful blended family of six grown kids for Sherry and two grown kids for Steve. And lots of fur babies!

Steve has worked for LeMay for almost 25 years as a welder at their Ferguson unit. He loves Rock n Roll, has a "Kiss" collection and he loves old cars. He currently has a 1970 Chevy Chevelle in the garage, waiting for some work to be done.

Welcome to the family, Steve!

You can sign up for just a Sunday or several Sundays. It is totally up to you. Check out the sign-up sheet and sign up for a Sunday or more. Materials are labeled and can be found in the office.

If you have questions, please ask Michelle Schaefer or Pastor.
